Letter of Recommendation

Yuki has been a student of Hello Kids for around 4 years now. When first starting with the school, his English level was at the very beginner stage. At this point, and thanks to Greg, his team at Hello Kids and their thematic teaching style, Yuki is now at a near-fluent level. Something we never thought possible after such a period of time. Yuki will be taking his first trip to Canada with Greg shortly, but has been a part of the School's many events over the years which have truly helped in creating his natural and technically correct language ability along with his personal-skills developments. I highly recommend Hello Kids to anyone at any level of English. It's an amazing place.

Thank you,

Namie Kanari
